Call to Worship

Psalm 105:1-2; 42-45

Leader: Give thanks to the LORD, call on his name; make known among the nations what he has done.

People: Sing to him, sing praise to him; tell of all his wonderful acts.

Leader: For he remembered his holy promise given to his servant Abraham.

People: He brought out his people with rejoicing, his chosen ones with shouts of joy;

Leader: he gave them the lands of the nations, and they fell heir to what others had toiled for— that they might keep his precepts and observe his laws.

All: Praise the LORD.

Opening Hymn

#63 All Creatures of our God and King

Prayer of Confession

Heavenly Father, we confess how hard it is to be your people. You have called us to be the church, to continue the mission of Jesus Christ to our lonely and confused world. Yet we acknowledge we are more apathetic than active, isolated than involved, callous than compassionate, obstinate than obedient, legalistic than loving. Gracious Lord, have mercy upon us and forgive our sins. Remove the obstacles preventing us from being your representatives to a broken world. Awaken our hearts to the promised gift of your indwelling Spirit and empower us to share the good news of salvation. This we pray in Jesus' powerful name. Amen.

Words of Assurance

Ephesians 4:32-5:1

Be kind and compassionate to one another, forgiving each other, just as in Christ God forgave you. Be imitators of God, therefore, as dearly loved children and live a life of love, just as Christ loved us and gave himself up for us as a fragrant offering and sacrifice to God.

Affirmation of Faith

From the Scotts Confession

We constantly believe that God, after the fearful and horrible departure of man from his obedience, did seek Adam again, call upon him, rebuke and convict him of his sin, and in the end made unto him a most joyful promise, that "the seed of the woman should bruise the head of the serpent," that is, that he should destroy the works of the devil. This promise was repeated and made clearer from time to time; it was embraced with joy, and most constantly received by all the faithful from Adam to Noah, from Noah to Abraham, from Abraham to David, and so onwards to the incarnation of Christ Jesus.
