Prayer of Confession

Heavenly Father, we confess that we are sinners in the midst of a sinful world. It's not just something we do; it's something we are. It's not merely a practice; it's a state of being. Our sins are not just momentary lapses, but they reflect our inner selves. We try to hide them in the dark closets of our soul, but in your presence, Lord, they come into the light. So, once again, we ask that you forgive us. Judge us not for what we are, but for who we are because of the life, death and resurrection of your Son, Jesus Christ. Grant us the strength and courage to live out our new identity in Christ faithfully until he returns again. In Jesus' name, we pray. Amen.

Words of Assurance

1 John 1:9

Affirmation of Faith

From The Lausanne Covenant

We believe that Jesus Christ will return personally and visibly, in power and glory, to consummate his salvation and his judgment. This promise of his coming is a further spur to our evangelism, for we remember his words that the gospel must first be preached to all nations. We believe that the interim period between Christ's ascension and return is to be filled with the mission of the people of God, who have no liberty to stop before the end. We also remember his warning that false Christs and false prophets will arise as precursors of the final Antichrist. We therefore reject as a proud, self-confident dream the notion that people can ever build a utopia on earth. Our Christian confidence is that God will perfect his kingdom, and we look forward with eager anticipation to that day, and to the new heaven and earth in which righteousness will dwell and God will reign forever. Meanwhile, we re-dedicate ourselves to the service of Christ and of people in joyful submission to his authority over the whole of our lives.
