Exodus 20:7 Rev. Dr. Jim Glatz

Pastoral Prayer and The Lord’s Prayer

Communion - World Communion Sunday

*Invitation and Benediction

*Closing Hymn “Amazing Grace”

Amazing grace! how sweet the sound, that saved a wretch like me!
I once was lost, but now am found, was blind, but now I see.

'Twas grace that taught my heart to fear, and grace my fears relieved;
how precious did that grace appear the hour I first believed!

The Lord has promised good to me, his word my hope secures;
he will my shield and portion be as long as life endures.

Thro’ many dangers, toils and snares I have already come:
'tis grace has brought me safe thus far, and grace will lead me home.

When we’ve been there ten thousand years, bright shining as the sun, we’ve no less days to sing God’s praise than when we’d first begun.

Dedication of the Tartans

Processional Hymn “Highland Cathedral” Psalm 139D

You are before me, Lord; you are behind,
and over me you have spread out your hand;
such knowledge is too wonderful for me,
too high to grasp, too great to understand.

If I should say let darkness cover me and I shall hide within the veil of night,
surely the darkness is not dark to you;
the night is as the day, the darkness light

(bagpipe interlude)

Search me, O God, search me and know my heart:
try me, O God, my mind and spirit try;
keep me from any path that gives you pain,
and lead me in the everlasting way.

Prayer of Confession

From the Book of Cerne
Heavenly Father, you call us to obedience, to follow you in all things; to give up the things we cling to, and to give ourselves wholeheartedly to your purposes. We confess that we don’t always find this easy to do. We confess that it is often very difficult to let go of the things we love. But we also know that you never ask more of us than what is possible, and that you stand ready, at all times, to sustain us, and to provide everything we need. Give us courage to faithfully follow your leading, even when we cannot see the outcome, even when the path you call us to seems impossible to comprehend. Help us to trust you in all things, to let go of everything that would stand in the way of whole-hearted obedience to you. In the name of Jesus Christ, we pray. Amen.

Romans 3:21-24

Affirmation of Faith

From the Scots Confession

We believe that God, after the fearful and horrible departure of man from his obedience, did seek Adam again, call upon him, rebuke and convict him of his sin, and in the end made unto him a most joyful promise, that “the seed of the woman should bruise the head of the serpent,” that is, that he should destroy the works of the devil. This promise was repeated and made clearer from time to time; it was embraced with joy, and most constantly received by all the faithful from Adam to Noah, from Noah to Abraham, from Abraham to David, and so onwards to the incarnation of Christ Jesus; all (we mean the believing fathers under the law) did see the joyful day of Christ Jesus, and did rejoice.

Congregational Hymn “By Faith”

Keith and Kristyn Getty

By faith we see the hand of God
In the light of creation's grand design
In the lives of those who prove His faithfulness
Who walk by faith and not by sight

By faith our fathers roamed the earth
With the power of His promise in their hearts
Of a holy city built by God's own hand
A place where peace and justice reign

(Chorus) We will stand as children of the promise
We will fix our eyes on Him our soul's reward
Till the race is finished and the work is done
We'll walk by faith and not by sight

By faith the prophets saw a day
When the longed-for Messiah would appear
With the power to break the chains of sin and death
And rise triumphant from the grave

By faith the church was called to go
In the power of the Spirit to the lost
To deliver captives and to preach good news
In every corner of the earth

(Chorus) We will stand...
By faith this mountain shall be moved
And the power of the gospel shall prevail
For we know in Christ all things are possible
For all who call upon His name (Chorus) (Chorus)

Passing of the Peace

Old Hundreth Psalm

All people that on earth do dwell, sing to the LORD with cheerful voice;
Him serve with mirth, His praise forth tell; come ye before Him and rejoice.

Know that the LORD is God indeed; without our aid He did us make;
We are His flock, He doth us feed, and for His sheep He doth us take.

O enter then His gates with praise, Within His courts your thanks proclaim;
With grateful hearts your voices raise, to bless and magnify His name.

Because the LORD our God is good, His mercy is forever sure;
His truth at all times firmly stood and shall from age to age endure.

Praise God from whom all blessings flow; praise Him, all creatures here below;
praise Him above, ye heav'nly host; praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost!

Offertory Prayer

Offertory Anthem “Hal-la-lelujah” Pepper Choplin

Commissioned for this occasion.

Arise and sing! Arise and sing a ha-la-le-lu-jah!

All generations, come now together and sing.

With celebration, come and play the pipe and string.

Sing, women of faith, rise up now and lift a song.

Sing men, and join them. Let the children sing along.

Ha-la-le-lu-jah! Raise your song! Ha-la-le-lu-jah! Sing it strong! Ha-la-le-lu-jah!

Praise the Lord! Ha-la-le-lu-jah! forevermore and more. We praise forevermore.

We sing, we bring a great ha-le-lu-jah.

Sing on the mountain. Sing in the valley below. Roar with the ocean. Roar with the river flow. Rise, ev'ry creature. Rise, ev'ry living thing. Give God the glory.
